Dear Anna: Yesterday was an AWESOME day at the Texas Motor Speedway. My husband Eddie got to drive around that track and he is still walking on air! The kids and I got a ride (or should I say, flight?) around the track and it just tickled us all--even my hard to impress daughter. We had a very good family fun day at Texas Motor Speedway. Everyone there was fantastic to us! We met Eric Norris and he even brought out a few souvenirs for us, including an autographed script from his dad on Walker, Texas Ranger! On the ride home, I think, no I KNOW we all beamed. We got up on this Easter morning and watched our tapes around the track again. It was awesome!

You guys do a fantastic job and I know you have to bring more than a million smiles to families who sometimes can't always smile. Thanks!!!!!!!

Ginni
